Council To Consider Sewer Agt. Tonight

19th St. Track Removal
With $13,344 Merchant
Loan To Be Presented

A major step toward solving Granite City's pollution and drainage problems is expected to be taken during tonight's council meeting when the city's Special Service Committee will submit a resolution for hiring a fiscal agent to handle arrangements for sale of a revenue bond issue.

Mayor Davis said the council also will be asked tonight to consider an offer made March 12 by the Downtown Granite City Shopping Center committee to advance the city the $13,344 needed for removal of 19th street trolley tracks.

While tonight's meeting is not a regular session and no agenda has been prepared, Mayor Davis said Alderman Frank Vesel, chairman of the Special Service Committee, is expected back from a Chicago business trip in time to present the resolution, based on a recommendation by the Citizens' Sewer and Drainage Committee.

The city group, which members have been interviewing representatives of bonding firms, will select a fiscal agent and submit the recommendation to the council. City Atty. William Beatty has been asked to prepare the resolution for presentation.

The program proposed by the citizen group last Dec. 13, calls for construction of a sewerage treatment plant, interceptor sewers and separate drainage lines costing $9,925,000. The citizen group is now nearly $1 million short of the amount needed to advance the city $13,344 needed to remove the 19th street trolley tracks from State street west to Cleveland blvd. with the city to provide the remainder.

The council also is expected to consider bills and salaries and bids on redecorating the mayor's office.

Undergo Surgery
The following are recovering at St. Elizabeth Hospital from surgery which they underwent since Thursday: Bert Hoffman, 1800 Washington avenue, Marilyn Hayes, 707 Third street, Venice; Luciel Young, 16 Roosevelt drive, Madison; and Lucille Cahill, 3003 Buxton, avenue; William Finn, 3028 Denver street.

Coolidge Bids Tomorrow
Seven general contractors, five electrical and four plumbing and heating contractors have obtained copies of plans for four Coolidge Junior High school. The bid opening is set for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Granite City school board office.

Double Benefits To City
BOY SCOUT COUNCIL AWARD, the Silver Beaver, was presented Saturday evening to Jack Friedman (right). His presentation was made by the left is Floyd McCracken, chairman of the Silver Beaver committee.

Interceptor Sewers and New Drainage Lines
With the treatment plant not required to handle all of the sewer flow, the daily capacity could be cut to 11,500,000 gallons, but the cost of the interceptor sewers would cost $1,400,000 to install, while the savings in treatment plant construction would be $1,700,000.

The Separate Sewer System
The separate sewer system would produce double benefits to the city by giving greater capacity to the sewerage system and by eliminating the now prevalent backups of sewage into basements, and the city would have a separate drainage system, designed to handle heavy rains and fill the city's needs for at least 10 years.

The Citizens' Committee Plans
The citizens' committee plans for a total expenditure of $9,925,000 to finance the entire program. The recommendation has been made for a $7,800,000 revenue bond issue, based on financial aid from the federal government on treatment plant construction and the East Side Levee & Sanitary District for trunk drainage lines.

The Order Issued Last July
The order is presently faced with a drop in new construction and subdivision expansion because of its failure to meet a pollution abatement deadline set for Dec. 31, 1961, by the state Sanitary Water Board. Seriousness of the order issued last July by the state board, banning any new sanitary sewer connections by the citizen group, but also by Alderman Frank Vesel, chairman of the council's Special Service Committee.

Lamp Post Drive-In restaurant on Route 676 south of Madison. During Friday's questioning, Pratt said he had seen Mr. Gozia in the Eagle Park area at various times in recent months. He was walking along a road early last Tuesday and obtained a ride from the truck driver, who was known to pick up hitchhikers.

At the time he seated himself on the passenger's side, he was carrying the five-shot nickel-plated revolver, which he had loaded. He said that as Mr. Gozia was driving and reached the intersection of Washington avenue and Race street, a dispute developed and Pratt fired toward his right arm and chest.

Leaving the truck, he ran back to the Eagle Park Acres area, reloaded the gun and hid it, he related.

Box Missing From Truck
While Pratt denied robbing Mr. Gozia, Madison police said they have information that money was taken from the body, and a small metal box, gray or blue in color, is missing from under the seat of the tractor cab. The driver had carried papers, checks and money in the box.

Police Chief Barney Fraundorf, who directed the investigation, said all 15 members of his department participated, as well as Deputy Sheriff Tony Pettillo. Pratt is separated from his wife, who resides in St. Louis, and his three children are being taken care of by his father. A native of Katherine, Mo., he went to school in Chicago and completed the first six grades.

He told police he quit his career as a professional boxer after injuring an opponent. He is five feet, two inches tall and weighs 147 pounds. He said he has been arrested many times in Chicago, Madison and Venice.

MRS. ADELE MARIE TODD

Mrs. Adele Todd, 36, Mother of 5, Dies

Mrs. James (Adele Marie) Todd, 36, of 2612 Delmar avenue, died at 3:35 a. m. Friday at Belleville Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient since the Caesarian section birth of her fifth daughter on March 14.

Her husband, who is superintendent of quality control and product development at the Granite City Steel Co., said death was only indirectly related to the birth of the child.

Mrs. Todd underwent emergency surgery at noon Thursday for a twisted intestine, a condition with which she had been afflicted for some time. The illness was complicated by the birth, Mr. Todd said.

A lifetime resident of Granite City, Mrs. Todd was a graduate of Granite City high school and attended Webster and Central grade schools. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

She belonged to the Ladies Golf Association at the Sunset Hills Country Club, and had been a member of a number of local social and fraternal organizations. She had dropped active membership in most of them in the past two years.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are the daughters, Linda Rae, 17, Jamie Ellen, 15, Lisa Ann, nine, Jean Marie, six, and the new baby, Mari Ruth; two sisters, Mrs. Edward (Laveda) Knobbe, Granite City, and Mrs. Donald (Evelyn) Pieper of Rockledge, Fla.; a brother, Robert Barr, and her mother, Mrs. Elsie Barr, both of Washington, D. C., and her father, Lyle Barr of Granite City.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon, followed by interment in Sunset Hill Cemetery near Edwardsville.

Leo Emmer, Madison, Found Dead At Home

Leo Emmer, 65, who lived alone at 801 Iowa street, Madison, was found dead in the bedroom of his home at 5:30 p. m. Thursday after a neighbor who was unable to arouse him summoned police.

Frank Kaylich, 819 Madison avenue, a close friend of Mr. Emmer, called Madison police, who met him at the Emmer home. The storm door was latched from the inside, police said, and had to be removed from its hinges.

Kaylich, accompanied by police and other neighbors, entered the house. Mr. Emmer was found lying along side a bed with his head leaning against a chair. He was fully clothed, police said, except for shoes.

Police called Deputy Coroner Francis Lahey, who pronounced Mr. Emmer dead at the scene. Lahey said death apparently was due to natural causes, although an inquest will be held.

Mr. Emmer, a retired cabinet maker, was born at Pinesville, Pa., and was a Madison resident 28 years, and was employed 10 years at the Parker Planning Mill until his retirement three years ago.

He is survived by a son, Robert, of New Orleans, La.; two daughters, Mrs. Walter (Shirley) Dill and Mrs. Walter (Shirley) Michalik, both of St. Louis; a sister, Mrs. Edna Doyle of St. James, Mo.; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The exact date of Templeton's performance, and for concerts by other guest artists and musical groups, has not yet been set for 1962-63. to submit a recommendation to the aldermanic board this evening for hiring a fiscal agent to aid in preparing for the proposed revenue bond issue. The citizen group was authorized to select the agent.

Yedl has commented several times that if the city does not act soon on pollution abatement, the state will step in and order the construction of a treatment plant, resulting in the loss of a tie-in drainage system which would keep the city from "floating away."

The State Sanitary Water Board, he pointed out, is interested only in pollution abatement and not if Granite City solves its drainage problems at the same time.

The drainage system outlined by the citizen group would provide faster and greater runoff of storm water through a network of drainage lines and ditches, coupled with doubling the size of the present Namoole storm water drainage ditch at a point south of the old Illinois Terminal Railroad right-way paralleling Victory drive.

The ditch would be widened from its present 20-foot width to 40 feet at an estimated cost of $85,000. This is designed not only to carry off water from Granite City proper, but also to speed the runoff in the Namoole area. During rains last spring, the ditch ran "brimful."

Wild Driver, Vandals Damage Fences In GC

Two fences in two different sections of Granite City were damaged early Sunday morning—one by a hit-and-run motorist and the other by youthful vandals.

Mr. Nick Nelson, 1436 State street, told police she was awakened by a loud crash about 2 a. m. and looked out the window to see a car racing north on State street. She later discovered a 12-foot section of fence in the front of her home had been knocked down. Tire tracks led from the curb to the fence, which borders the sidewalk.

At 2001 Thirteenth street, Mrs. Richard Thalmann said she saw two youths pulling at the fence at her home but thought they were pulling it off the front and the Martin street side.

Reds Cancel 13-2 Deficit; Quincy Third

Decatur's Reds, staging a comeback after being 11 points down early in the game, edged Carver of Chicago 49-48 Saturday night in the championship game of the Illinois high school basketball tournament at George Hull gym in Champaign.

All-star Ken Barnes calmly sank a free throw with eight seconds remaining to break a 48-48 tie and gave the Reds their fourth state title in the school history, tying an all-time record held by Mount Vernon.

Bad Pass

Bruce Raickett of Carver, the highest-scoring guard in the tourney, was the "good" of the championship finals. He made a bad pass with about one minute left in the game with the regulation time.

Jerry Hill picked off the bad pass, and it was Decatur's turn to stall for one last shot. But as Barnes moved down the right side of the key he was fouled, and he hit the first half of a one-and-one bonus free throw opportunity.

His second shot fell off the rim, but Carver had time only for a desperation half-court shot, and the final gun sounded.

Allen Hurt

The Challengers were handicapped when 6-6 center Joe Allen twisted a knee in the second quarter, and had to be taken out. Carver had an eight-point lead at the time, but smaller Decatur grabbed the lead within 10 minutes.

The Reds grabbed the lead in the third quarter, 31-27, and held it until late in the fourth period, when Carver caught up and a one-time led by a basket.

Decatur, not one of the favorites when the eight finalists reached Champaign, rolled into the finals by beating Rock Island 61-56 in the first round, Friday and topping Quincy 47-44 Saturday afternoon.

Quincy eked a lockout at McLeansboro five Saturday night in the third-place game, 65-45. The Foxes, who lost out to Carver in the afternoon semifinals, played their final game as if it were at stake, as indicated by the intensity of the game.

Burns was the individual high scorer in the tournament with 35 points in three games. Cazzie Russell of Carver, with

Bricklayers, Optimists Win First Soccer League Games Here

Bricklayers' Local 65 and the Twilight Optimists emerged with victories Saturday in the first scheduled games of the newly-organized YMCA soccer leagues for boys.

Playing on the Coolidge junior high school athletic field, the Optimists edged Granite City Trust & Savings Bank 1-0 on a second-half goal in a Midget division game.

The Bricklayers followed up with a 3-1 win over the St. Lou AC, a St. Louis club, after St. Thomas More of St. Louis and Lincoln Place of Granite City had battled to a 2-2 standoff in another juvenile game.

The league program is under the supervision of Ruben Mendoza of Granite City, a former Olympic soccer player and currently a member of the St. Louis Kuttis team.

Next Saturday's Midget schedule has not been completed, but in juvenile league games on tap, the Bricklayers and Lincoln Place will meet at noon, followed by a game between St. Lou AC and St. Thomas More at 1:30 p.m. On Sunday, St. Lou AC and Lincoln Place are scheduled at noon, and the Bricklayers and St. Thomas More will play at 1:30.

the smallest enrollment of 47 schools in the Chicago playoffs, was joined by teammate Allen Barnes and Ron Teague of Rock Island on the all-tournament team.

1st Upset By Carver

On Friday afternoon, McLeansboro steamrollered past York 84-68, and the tournament's first upset followed when Carver of Chicago put an end to Centralia's 29-game winning streak, 36-30.

Outside of hitting 20 of 24 free throws, the Orphans did little right against the taller Chicagoans, who brought a control game reputation to Huff gym, but they could run with Centralia and match their press.

Centralia hit only 14 of 49 shots from the field, while Carver finished at 54% with 23 of 42. The little Chicago school (enrollment 750) dominated the backboards and could have made the game a runaway if it had been able to capitalize on free throw opportunities. Carver missed on its first five chances from the line, and the pattern continued all afternoon.

Ron Johnson hit 20 points for the losers, but Centralia's vaunted outside attack did not live up to advance bidding. Don Duncan scored just six points, and fouled out late in the game.

Centralia hit a couple of cold streaks, going more than four minutes in the second and third periods without scoring a field goal.

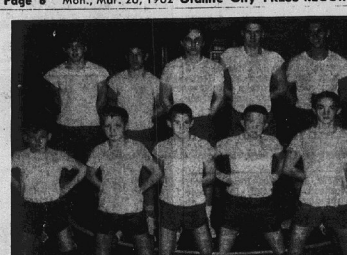

The Orphans had won state championships in 1922 and 1942, and their backers were hoping for another title after another 20 years.

Annual Birthday Dinner Of Isabel Bevier Unit

The Isabel Bevier unit of the Madison County Homemakers Extension Association held its annual birthday dinner combined with a regular meeting Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Edith Ross, 11 Terrace lane.

At 6:30, a "chicken and dumplings" dinner was served to the members and guests buffet style. The buffet table was decorated with long runners of colorful flowers on a white tablecloth, while the individual tables had red tablecloths and white or yellow candles surrounded by garlands of flowers.

After the dinner, Mrs. Irene Daves, unit chairman, conducted a brief business meeting. Reports were given by Mrs. Myrtle Hickman, Mrs. Doris Wilson and Mrs. Lorraine Joshi.

Mrs. Bernice Friedman reported on a drapery class that she and Mrs. Daves had attended earlier in the day at Edwardsville. The lesson will be given by Mrs. Friedman to the other members of the unit at 7:30 p.m. April 17 in her home, 2445 Edison avenue. The lining of drapes, various ways of making cafe curtains and the correct use of "pleater" tape will be given by Mrs. Friedman.

Mrs. Hickman gave out "program planning" sheets, and the members were instructed to learn the topics they want to learn about the year, ranging from better foods to how to properly manage finances.

The chairman announced that the county meeting will be held here May 23 at St. John United Church of Christ. She reported that it will be attended by about 300 members of The Homemakers Extension Association, and a noon luncheon will be served by the Ladies Guild of the church.

She appointed Mrs. Edith Ross, Mrs. Helen Cuvier, Mrs. June Huber and Mrs. Lorraine Joshi to a decorating committee to work in conjunction with the decorating committee of the Granite City and Tiro units. Mrs. Myrtle Hickman is the chairman from the southwest district, which is made up of the three local units for the county meeting.

Mrs. Joshi explained a talk on hymnody given by Sister Theresa of St. Elizabeth Hospital, and the girls decided to attend one of the talks. Mrs. Daves appointed Mrs. Joshi as chairman of a committee to make the arrangements.

An invitation was given by Mrs. Daves to the members to attend a first-class class. She said that it takes ten hours—two hours, one night a week, for five weeks. A discussion was held on the plan, and an announcement will be made later on the time and dates selected.

Mrs. Vyvienne Durbin, district chairman, reported on a proposed tour of the Kroger bakery in St. Louis and a tour of a new supermarket in Florissant as a possible plan for the district meeting in May. She explained that at this meeting, the chairman and secretary for the coming two years are to be elected.

Mrs. Durbin announced that the other two units will be consulted, and the chairman of those units are to report to her on their units' wishes. Also discussed was an alternate plan of having a regular meeting, with possibly a speaker, the park film, a hat show or films of a previous style show given by the district.

The unit will have a card party at the Big Top April 24, with Mrs. Hickman and Mrs. Durbin making the arrangements. Coffee and cake will be served.

The evening's major lesson was given by Mrs. Elaine Wendler, home advisor from Edwardsville, on "Low-Calorie Refreshments for Entertaining," and colorful cakes made by the members were displayed. Mrs. Wendler gave a dozen ways to cut down calories in favorite recipes, and explained reasons food is served to guests. She told why low-calorie desserts should be served when entertaining.

A lesson on the "Art of Listening," was given by Mrs. Joshi, who told of bad and good listening habits, now persons can

He said the committee recommended the $400 scholarship with the belief that it provides sufficient funds to give the student a start and insure that he can continue his college education on his own if he is willing to work for it.

COCA Outlines Cut In Local Area Construction Costs

Building labor productivity has increased in the Illinois Metropolitan area so that construction costs now compare favorably with many other large industrial areas, members of the Council of Contractor Associations were told Thursday night at their third annual meeting held at Alton. At one time, construction costs in the area were second highest in the nation.

Speaker at the meeting was Lee McMahon of a St. Louis law firm and former regional director for the National Labor Relations Board in St. Louis who gave an analysis of new trends taken in the Kennedy administration version of the NLRB board. He pointed to a change of liberalizing rulings on "informal" picketing and a trend swinging away from original stricter rulings on boycotts.

Tribute To Joint Effort
The COCA annual report paid tribute to joint efforts of the association, industries and the cooperative attitude of building trades for "an increase in labor productivity estimated in some instances to be as much as 20% and 25%."

Among factors cited in reducing costs was an almost complete elimination of workstoppage jurisdictional disputes, along with "decided reduction in the once high number of cases of 'feather-bedding,' make work and other costly labor practices."

An example given included reports by contractors comparing costs and productivity on installation of blast furnaces at Granite City Steel Co. here in 1956 and in 1961.

A COCA function, stressed in the report, is assisting in setting up pre-job conferences, with 21 held in 1961 for construction at Granite City Steel Co. and plants in the Alton area.

In addition, COCA arranged 32 meetings regarding jurisdictional disputes, with 20 settled through job assignments made by contractors and 10 by agreement between the disputing unions. Two were settled by job assignments after referral to a joint board.

Gathering Book Material

Much-Traveled Deaf Mute Makes GC 4873rd Stop

A deaf mute who began a million-mile world tour 34 years ago, to collect material for a book he hopes to have published arrived in Granite City Thursday evening.

He is Ralph Bradford, 62, who has not let the adversity of life gain the upper hand. He lost the ability to speak or hear in 1904 when he suffered an attack of polio. Forty-five years later, still bearing the crippling effects of the disease, he was struck by an automobile, and in 1950 was injured by a train.

He and his wife, Frances, lost two sons when the aircraft carrier Wasp was sunk by the Japanese in 1942.

Bradford, who was born and raised in West Virginia, announced that Granite City is the 4873rd city he has visited since he began his world travels in 1928. He plans to add Madison, Venice and Alton to his list before leaving the area to go to the northern part of the state.

The sale began Friday afternoon. Mrs. John Koester, 4605 Maryville road, is chairman of the sale in District 4, which covers the Quad-Cities. Council chairman is Mrs. John Zimmer, 1501 Cottage avenue.

Cookies are being sold directly this year instead of by advance order. Profits from the sale are used to sponsor Girl Scout activities and provide needed facilities and equipment.

The individual troops are allowed to retain a five-cent profit on each box sold to sponsor troop activities.

Optimists Hear Talk On Farm Programs

A comparison of farm programs now pending in Congress was outlined Thursday afternoon to members of the Noonday Optimist Club by Charles Lauch, president, and Frank Thomas, secretary, both officers of the Madison County Farm Bureau at Edwardsville.

A sound film strip giving details of the National Farm Bureau Land Retirement Program and the government's Food and Farm Control bill was shown.

The luncheon meeting, held at the Elks Club and presided over by B. C. "Tip" O'Neill, president, was attended by 40 members and guests. The guests were Robert Bieber, George Maue of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., Harlan Delory of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, and Wilbert Engle and Howard Kaseberg, local Farm Bureau members.

Completes Navy School

James E. Cantion, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Cantion, of 2704 Burton avenue, was recently graduated from the Aviation Machinist's Mate school in Memphis, Tenn. During the nine-week course, Cantion was instructed in aircraft power plants and line operations.

Bradford's goal is 10,000 cities visited by 1965, when he plans to "retire" from his travels, which are made by bus, train and occasionally airplane. To this date, he has logged about 975,000 miles, a distance which includes three trips around the world, four cross-country tours of the United States and visits to Hawaii and Alaska before they were granted statehood.

The deaf mute has completed 321 pages of the book he hopes to have published. It will be called "My Million Silent Miles."

Mr. Bradford will spend several days here "sightseeing" and gathering information on the area's history. He doesn't travel "light." His baggage includes a typewriter, foot locker, three cameras and five suitcases. His continuous 34 years of traveling have been financed for the most part by temporary employment he is able to find in the cities he visits.

Autos of Richard Buss, 2025a Iowa street, Mrs. O'Dean Lowe, 1103 Madison avenue, Madison, and James O. Schmidt, 1001 Greenwood street, Madison were damaged in a collision at 7:15 p.m. Thursday in the 1100 block of Madison avenue.

Shopping Center Ok'd For East End Of St. Clair Ave.

A request for a C-2 commercial zoning designation for a shopping center at the end of St. Clair avenue outside the city limits was approved Thursday evening by members of the Granite City Planning Commission.

The request was submitted by Henry Ross, contractor, who plans to develop a shopping center and also is seeking annexation to the city.

The commissioners pointed out Ross would have difficulty at present in obtaining permission for connecting onto city sewers, because of the ban set last July by the state Sanitary Water Board, which is seeking to halt the pollution of the Mississippi River.

Also approved by the Commissioners was a plat for a new subdivision, Bruene Meadows, along the west side of State Route 111 between Ponton Beach and State Route 162. The request was submitted by George Stearns of Maryland Real Estate Co. The tract is within the one-and-a-half-mile limit in which the city controls developments. It will contain about 47 lots.

Farm Column

By IRUMAN W. MAY
Madison County Farm Adviser

Applying nitrogen on wheat fields has come to be a general practice. In the large majority of cases it noticeably increases wheat yields.

Much of the nitrogen used on wheat is applied at planting time in the fall or during the winter. But to get the most out of each pound of nitrogen, apply it when the wheat starts to green up in late March or April, advises University of Illinois agronomist L. B. Miller. The soft, muddy fields are a problem this year. Some farmers have been able to get on their fields when the ground is frozen early in the morning.

To get the most from your nitrogen dollar, know your soil's nitrogen level. This will depend on the previous cropping and fertilizing history. How much nitrogen should you apply? What doesn't require much, but to get the results you'd like, the soil must have adequate amounts of phosphate, potash and lime. Profitable applications of spring-applied nitrogen range from 20 to 40 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre.

In experimental work at the Brownstown field near Vandalia, wheat without nitrogen, but with adequate amounts of other nutrients—has averaged 35 bushels an acre over an eight-year period. When 20 pounds of actual nitrogen were applied, yield jumped to 44 bushels an acre. Another 20 pounds of nitrogen per acre upped the yield only four bushels an acre. This experiment was in a rotation of corn, soybeans, wheat and hay.

Large amounts of nitrogen on wheat, not only wastes your fertilizer dollars, but they also produce rank wheat that is susceptible to lodging. Heavy application of nitrogen may also interfere with legume seedlings.

What form of nitrogen to use? Any of the nitrate forms are good, but ammonium nitrate is about the easiest to handle in spring applications.

One word of caution: Phosphate or potash seldom pays when top-dressed in the spring on wheat unless you're planning to seed legumes.

High yields and a well-managed livestock program that makes maximum use of forage crops are the keys to profitable forage production.

Since home-grown forages are usually the cheapest source of feed nutrients for dairy cattle, every effort should be made to get as many nutrients from them as possible. Good cows that are virtually stuffed with all the high-quality forage they will eat produce milk at the lowest feed cost per pound.

Successful beef cow herd operations demand the use of low-cost feeds. This means making maximum use of forages and eliminating grain from the cow ration. It is a mistake to have a cow herd unless you can use quantities of cornstalks, stubble clover or other low-value forages.

Brood sows make much better use of pasture or harvested forage than young growing pigs do. Sows may be fed less grain when the maximum amount of forage is used.

The ewe flock may successfully be fed roughage the year round with a limited amount of grain during the latter part of gestation and when ewes are suckling their lambs.

For more information on pasture, hay and silage for dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs and sheep, get a copy of the Illinois Forage Handbook. This University of Illinois circular, which is available at the farm adviser's office, also lists harvesting equipment and methods, forage machinery costs, ways to self-feed from bunker silos, and costs of storing silage.

Orders for reforestation stock will be accepted by the State Department of Conservation until April 17. A good supply of Kieft pines and hardwoods is available. Early orders can be given more individual attention to orders should be received in time. Order forms can be obtained at the farm adviser's office.

Honor roll certificates from the Purebred Dairy Cattle Association were presented to four members of the Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association whose herds averaged 450 or more pounds of butterfat per cow for a year of testing at the association's annual meeting last week. Dairyman receiving the certificates were Norman Henke, Waldo Keilbach, Harold Kenice and Harold Baumann.

Officers of the association elected at the meeting were Waldo Keilbach, president; Norman Henke, vice-president; and Vernon Becker, secretary-treasurer. Directors elected were Rudy Kuttin and Raymond Hess. Testers are Kenneth Weber and Charles Meyer.

New Madison county cooperators in the Lincoln Farm Bureau Farm Management Service are Elmer Klenke, Kenneth Weber and William Ambuhl. The Farm Bureau Farm Management Service association continues to increase its membership in Madison County. Our farmers realize the importance of complete and detailed records as a basis for sound management planning.

This service is offered by the Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Illinois with county Farm Bureau co-operating. Mr. C. Bennett Rodhouse of Greenville is area fieldman for the association.

Vitamin A deficiencies have been observed in many beef cattle and fed rations that contained adequate carotene or provitamin A. Experimental work supports the theory that beef cattle are unable to convert the carotene in certain roughages to the needed vitamin A. At the present time, many questions have not been completely answered. Many opinions have been stated as facts in an attempt to give an easy explanation for the problem. One of the most frequently expressed opinions was lead one to believe that the use of nitrogen in a fertilization program for hay or silage crops is the cause. Ralph V. Johnson,

Optimists Hear Debate On Aid To Education

A debate on federal aid to education between members of a Granite City high school team which will be entered in the high school debate finals April 6 and 7 was presented before the Daybreak Optimist club meeting at the YMCA Saturday morning.

The local club had as its guests 12 members of the Wood River Daybreak club, and one new member, Charles Weiss, an instructor at Coolidge junior high school, was inducted.

The club made plans to send a bowling team to Springfield on Sunday to participate in the Optimist district tournament, and announced that it will again sponsor a team in the park district boys' baseball program.

Taking the affirmative stand in the debate were Robert Butler Jr. and Carl Johnson, who argued that federal aid would provide equality of opportunity in education. The negative side was taken by John Miller and John Spidich, who argued that as federal spending increases, its efficiency decreases.

University of Illinois dairy specialist, speaking at the recent P.I.L.A. annual meeting stated that dairy cows like beef cattle were unable to convert certain vitamins A under certain conditions. Mr. Johnson stated that dairy rations may be supplemented with 10,000 units of vitamin A for about one-half cent per unit. Supplemental vitamin A has been effective in correcting deficiencies in all cases where it has been reported. More information is available at the experimental work presently underway is completed. There is no justification, at present, to make radical changes in your feeding or fertilization programs, because vitamin A supplements are available and effective and cost very little.

Forty registered Polled Hereford bulls and females will be offered for sale at the Madison County Fairgrounds Saturday, March 31. This polled hereford sale and show is sponsored by the Madison County Hereford Breeders' Association. The show will begin at 8:30 a.m. The show will be judged by Mr. Gary Andrews of Manchester, Illinois. Sale time is 12 p.m. in the Highland fairgrounds pavilion. Selected bulls and females have been consigned from seventeen well-known Hereford herds in the area.

Madison County Service are Kenneth Barmelmeier, Virgil Barmelmeier, Orval McLean and Leonard Amann. Sale catalogues may be obtained from Association secretary Harvey Thibrend, O'Fallon, Illinois.

Monday, March 28, 1937
Misses Betty and Ruth Reus, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Reus, have returned from school to spend the holidays with their parents. Ruth attended Sweetbriar College in Virginia, and Betty is a student at Greenbrier in West Virginia.

The regular meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will hold Friday evening at the IOOF Annex, with 28 members present.

Bands from the Granite City and Venice high schools will compete in the district contest which will be held April 2 and 3 in Alton. There are 43 contesting band units.

The community high school band will compete in Class A, and Venice is entered in Class C, which is limited to schools of 250 enrollment or less.

Mrs. Harry Frauenfelder, Mrs. J. A. Lang, Mrs. William Cannon, Mrs. Orlean Padgett, Mrs. J. Fuhrman, Mrs. Gladys Children and Mrs. Howard Sharp were those of the Elminig club attending the regular meeting of the group held in the home of Mrs. Walter Schleuter Thursday.

Leut. Theodore Fossick, a member of the faculty of the Western Military Academy at Alton, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fossick of Iowa state, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison were entertained over the weekend by Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb of West Frankfort, Ill.

Candidates for the Community high school 1937 tennis team are getting themselves in condition for the season, which opens soon. There are five letters in the team as well as several promising recruits. The veterans include Norman Wendell, William Harrison, Fred Kunneman, Leonard Libby and Charles Libby.

Harry Grotjahn and Green appear to be the most likely new recruits. Lawrence McCleary, tennis instructor at the high school, said the school courts have been improved and will be ready for play. He believes they will be better this year than for some time.

Readers are invited to contribute to this column. Names and addresses must be given. Contributors will be paid $2.50 per week. Letters should be 250 words or less.

hazard it creates. Is the owner of this property exempt from our city laws?

Getting back to the dog hunt, there were three or four dogs shot and picked up. According to our city laws, the humane officer was authorized to shoot any dog running loose.

However, many times he wishes to see five or six dogs running loose, without collars or muzzles, just travel about three blocks over to 27th street, that runs along the Wilson Park. The dog owners of these dogs exempt from our city laws?

CENTER STREET RESIDENT ACTION NEEDED TO HELP UNEMPLOYED MEN OBTAIN JOBS

To the Editor: In the March 19 issue of the Press, we read where the mayors are proclaiming a drive to employers to hire school boys for summer work. This is a good idea. I'm for it.

When these people work, how about the jobless men in our community as well as other communities? There should be some way to help them. They are the ones who need work.

Why not try to help these people get a job? Remember, these jobless people also vote, so why not try to help them find work? When these people work, this builds up our economic growth and builds up our community.

Solution To Serious Pollution-Drainage Problem Is In Hands Of City Council

A bright spot in the depressing drainage conditions and curtailment of Granite City's growth is that circumstances, and the steady worsening of the problem, are moving the city toward a solution.

Armed for the first time with the tools that it needs, and reassured by growing public sentiment, the city council now is in a position to take the action that is imperative—adoption of the bond ordinance for the $9,925,000 pollution-drainage program. Once this is done, the city can resume its forward progress.

While there is much to be said for thorough deliberation on any project of such importance, immediate action on the bond ordinance will be a sound economic and civic move. More stringent action by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board is a certainty unless the city acts, and it can occur at any time.

By approving the bond ordinance before this happens, the council can ensure local control of pollution treatment and other drainage facilities, can qualify for large urban renewal grants and can take the key step toward achieving adequate drainage and meeting the federal and state governments' requirements. There will still be sufficient time after the ordinance is enacted for the program to be fully reviewed; there is ample recourse for all who will be affected.

It is clear that the city must halt its pollution of the river; that storm drainage is bad and getting worse throughout the city; that the overloaded combined sewer system is creating serious threats to health; and that only the comprehensive program presented by the council's citizen committee can do the job that is needed and do it economically.

The future undeniably is dark under existing conditions. It can be brightened immeasurably by approval of the bond ordinance. There is no acceptable alternative; no other course of action that can produce the necessary results.

Let there be no mistake about this point—Granite City is at the crossroads, where it will either act responsibly and affirmatively, or where it will sign its own death warrant and quickly begin to wither away and die.

The issue is the pollution-drainage problem, and the solution is council approval of a city revenue bond issue.

Tax Reports Show Upward Surge In Area's Economy

Simon Here Wednesday At Group's Invitation

Rep Paul Simon, Democratic candidate for state senator, will be at the YMCA clubrooms at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday to answer questions and discuss problems which pertain to the senatorial office and this area.

His appearance at the group of local citizens, the meeting is to be conducted on an informal basis, and is open to the public.

Dr. Leo M. Coleman, a spokesman for the group which arranged the discussion, said Simon has been furnished with a list of questions which they would like to discuss.

here, in my opinion, has been caused by cost-plus engineering delays; costly delays in construction and repair of urgent projects; non-enforced and past collection of traffic parking and various law violations; a costly fire palace; increased salaries and added wages; costly similar jobs in neighboring cities — that we could not afford; city-paid employees performing poorly; and many other disturbing factors that are being uncovered due to our urgent and upsetting sewer problem.

These things assure waste and unwise use of our tax dollars, not to mention the city's reputation. Let's cut out wasteful spending and stop increasing the taxes citizens must pay. Let's use our present income to greater public advantage and try to remedy the needy and costly preventive and corrective projects we must now afford.

Let's use our means to an end and let's let the end justify the politically-inspired means. You can kill the goose that lays the golden egg, you know. Please evaluate the message without influence of the writer's signature.

member brought not only the traditional pre-holiday buying rush but set a city sales tax record topping that of any previous month.

While total municipal sales tax collections for the Quad City area last year did not quite reach the level of 1960, which had started off at a high level but tapered off later, two new highs were achieved. Net sales tax receipts for both the city of Madison and Madison county established new yearly records in 1961.

Growing Honor Roll Of Organizations For Zoning

The wide base of support for adoption of Madison county zoning is reflected in the honor roll of Quad-City organizations which have decided on active participation in the campaign. The list should continue to grow here and elsewhere, for zoning directly affects the future prosperity of this county.

Included already are four veterans' organizations ranging from Venice to the Long Lake area; six civic groups located in all sections of the Quad Cities; and such key organizations as the AFL-CIO Trades and Labor Council, Real Estate Board, Chamber of Commerce, Associated Retailers and Ministerial Association. Each has cast a vote for progress. Each is on record as being willing to help build a foundation that can bring this area's bright potential to reality.

Chorophonic Group Receiving Praise Includes Quad-Cityans

Plaudits for the Southwestern Illinois Chorophonic Society's choral rendition of difficult selections by Stravinsky, Mozart and Schubert at the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra's chamber music concert reflect credit on the Quad-Cities, which provided a fourth of the singers.

Trained by a Southern Illinois University faculty member, the society is a harbinger of organizations likely to be developed in the Illinois Metropolitan Area in association with the university. In the meantime, perhaps a performance by the Chorophonic group can be scheduled for a Quad-City location at some future time.

876 Firms Providing Jobs For 63% Of Students At Local University

Southern Illinois University's self-help program is enabling many to complete college despite lack of funds, President Morris told Chicago Rotarians this month in stressing that all should have an opportunity to develop their ability to a Quad-City location at some future time.

The work plan "adds to their classroom experience the dimension of real service to real people" was pointed out. Judging by the high percentage participating, there is a genuine need for student jobs, despite growing scholarship programs, and Illinois Metropolitan Area employers are meeting the challenge.

The university's reasoning is sound and quite simple—those with high potential do not come from any one level of financial ability. And our civilization pays a heavy price for failing to develop the potential of its youth.

In the words of Dr. Morris, "The question is whether they should be partners and contributors or merely ghosts at the table, who draw from and endanger society rather than nurture it. One who is undeveloped and unskilled can become isolated and antagonistic, limited to occasional jobs, and in relief from their frustration, turn to exploitation and confused thinking of the Fascist or Communist variety."

ZONING

The law with respect to zoning, unlike many other fields of law, is not a recent creation. The first zoning statute in Illinois was enacted only forty years ago. Notwithstanding the fact, most municipalities, and many counties, now have zoning ordinances.

These ordinances restrict the type and height of buildings that may be erected and the space that they may occupy. In municipalities that wish to adopt zoning regulations, a zoning commission is appointed. This commission prepares a proposed zoning ordinance, and after giving public notice, holds a hearing at which those who are interested may appear and be heard.

In municipalities that wish to adopt zoning regulations, a zoning commission is appointed. This commission prepares a proposed zoning ordinance, and after giving public notice, holds a hearing at which those who are interested may appear and be heard.

No Effect On Present Usage

The ordinance that is adopted does not have any retroactive effect on the use of such property for any purpose to which it is put prior to the adoption of the ordinance.

The ordinance must designate an officer who will be responsible for enforcing it. Decisions of this officer are subject to appeal to a board of appeals, which is appointed by the city council or village board. Decisions of the board of appeals may, in turn, be appealed to the circuit court.

A municipality may exercise its zoning powers in contiguous territory not more than one and a-half miles from the city limits if the territory is not in another municipality or the county or not adopted a county zoning plan.

The ordinance customarily provides for penalties for violation of its provisions. In addition, the ordinance may provide for the village or any property owner or tenant in the same area may bring suit to enforce violations of the ordinance.

Enforcement of the ordinance is in instances in which enforcement of the ordinance would involve practical difficulties or would be a waste of money.

This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interfere with any law without consulting an attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law.

INFLAMED APPENDIX

Appendicitis is still a common disease in that it occurs frequently. However, appendicitis is no longer the common cause of death it once was.

This major accomplishment can be attributed to several factors: earlier recognition of the physician, earlier diagnosis, a better knowledge of surgical physiology, and the remarkable development of chemotherapeutic drugs to control infection.

The appendix is a small, finger-like protruberance from the large bowel varying in length from one to six inches. It extends from that portion of the bowel called the cecum, which is the lower right side of the abdomen.

Because of its location near the bladder and the rectum, inflammation of the appendix may produce symptoms which are related to these organs.

Pain Is Symptom

The symptoms of appendicitis in children and adults are relatively the same except that the pain progresses more rapidly in children than in adults.

Pain in the abdomen is the first symptom, and is present in nearly all of the patients. The characteristic pain is usually located in the mid portion of the upper abdomen, changing within a few hours to the right lower section or quadrant of the abdomen over the appendix.

However, the interim between the time when the shift takes place is when the most serious complications of appendicitis can occur—that is, the rupture of the appendix. When this happens the infection spreads rapidly through the abdominal cavity, causing an inflammation which the physician will endeavor to establish the peritonitis. Thus,

Two Students Treated At Hospital For Injuries

School accidents resulted in minor injuries for which two Granite City students were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Marie Parks, 14, of 2605 Cayuga street, was treated for an injury to her right wrist received while playing volleyball, and Marlene Evans, eight, of 1014 Iowa street, had back x-rays after a fall.

Sometimes you find a man who does a lot of hard work, but most of it is of the sore-head variety.

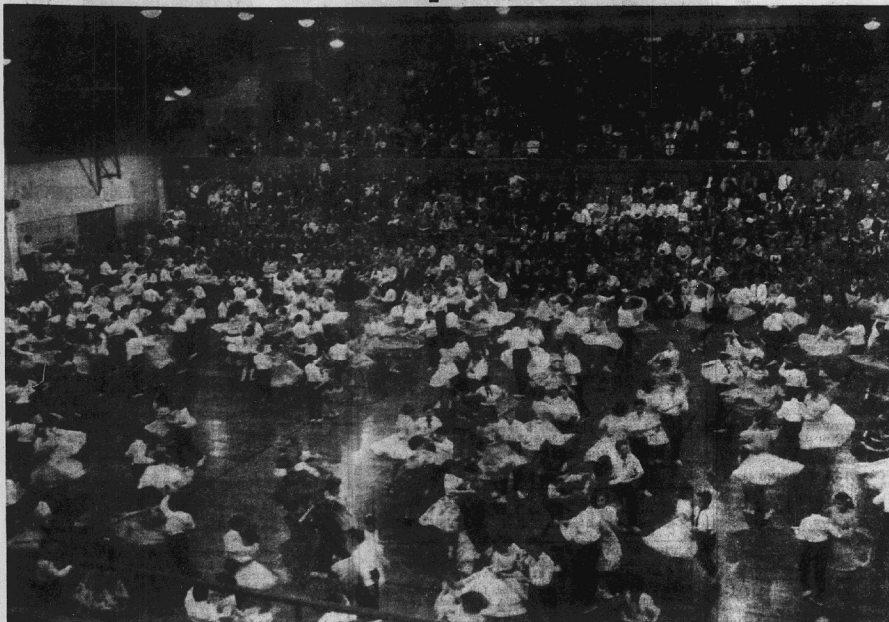

Members of the Peeler family held a barbecue at their home Thursday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. John Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. John Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. John Peeler.

800 Park Dist. Square Dancers Perform for Crowd of 1900

COLORFUL PAGEANT performed by about 800 youthful square dancers who took part in the Granite City park district's second annual jubilee Thursday evening in the high school Memorial gymnasium before a crowd of about 1900 parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters and friends. The above available light photograph shows an "all school" performance of the dance "First Nighter" with only a portion of the large audience in the background.

TWIRLING SKIRTS emphasizes swift action in square dancing as this young girl, who was wearing a bright red dress, appears to have been caught flat-footed by the camera, but is actually stopping herself after a twirl. The girl in the background has struck practically the identical pose.

All Photographs by a
Press-Record Staff Photographer

TOO MANY GIRLS and not enough boys has been the problem ever since the park district started the square dance program several years ago. However, these girls were not wallflowers. They stood by the sidelines and watched intently the dancing until it was their turn to dance and other girls replaced them on the sidelines.

ENJOYMENT is shown on the faces of these youngsters in one of the dozens of squares that jammed the floor of huge Memorial gymnasium. Note how the dancers have learned to watch their partners and others in their square rather than gaze about to see how others are doing. The jubilee concluded the 18-week park district course.

TADPOLE SQUARES of Madison, also instructed by the Bob Boyds, performing a specialty number, "Daisy Mae and Lil Abner," which delighted the youngsters and audience.

GRAND MARCH, the finale of the performance, shows the youngsters parading down the gym floor, eight abreast. They then formed squares to conclude the program.

'Bachelor of Square Dancing' Diplomas For All

"Bachelor of Square Dancing" diplomas were given nearly 800 youngsters who Thursday night performed in the second annual "Square Dance Jubilee" at Memorial Gymnasium, marking the end of the 18-week course conducted at six local schools by the Granite City park district. An estimated 1900 parents nity center. Promptly at 7:30, the 800 Square dancers from the classes in Logan, Nameoki, Wilson, and Lil Abner. The classes from the local schools presented round dance as well as square dance numbers, and concluded the program with a grand march, after which they received diplomas from the instructors and park district officials, signifying they had completed the prescribed courses at the College of Do Si Does and Madison Tadpole Promenades for fun, friendliness and good sportsmanship.

Poker Game Rule, Other Opinions By Atty. General

Illinois poker players can gain little comfort from a ruling handed down recently by State Attorney General William G. Clark.

An opinion requested by Oral C. Kost, Fulton county state's attorney, Clark ruled that poker players cannot recover money found on the table when a poker game is raided.

All money found in front of each player, the attorney general ruled, along with that in the "pot" or in the house "kitty," is contraband and is subject to forfeiture.

Among other rulings handed down by Clark is an opinion that a brother must support his needy natural sister under provisions of the Public Assistance Code even though she has been adopted by one family and he another.

Sales Tax Ruling
And in an opinion requested by State's Attorney J. E. Bales of Lee county, Clark ruled that proceeds of the county sales tax may be placed by the county board in the road and bridge fund.

Concerning teachers' retirement benefits, the attorney general ruled that such benefits when paid to surviving beneficiaries are not subject to the Illinois inheritance tax. When such benefits are paid to the member's estate, however, the opinion said, they are subject to the tax.

Clark also ruled that persons holding positions under the Illinois Personnel Code without examination must place among the highest ranking group when such examinations are held if they are to be reappointed to their positions.

On Zoning Laws
In another ruling requested by State's Attorney Bales of Lee county, Clark decided that transfer of ownership of property situated in a zoned area and lawfully used for a public use which does not conform with the zoning law in effect in that area does not entitle the owner to non-conforming use of the property.

Concerning a salaried police magistrate, the attorney general ruled that such official cannot require advance payment of fees on a criminal warrant and mittimus issued for state criminal violations where the arresting officers are the county sheriff or state police. Any unpaid fees in such a situation, Clark's opinion said, cannot be collected by the police magistrate from the county.

Traffic Ticket
T. R. Smith, 41, of 2004 Harris street, Madison, was issued an arrest ticket Friday afternoon on a charge of failing to observe a stop sign at 23rd and Monroe streets. He posted his driver's license as bond.

nounced that a pinewood derby will be held at the next pack meeting, and car kits will be given to the cubs by their den mothers as soon as the next shipment is received. He stressed that each car must weigh more than four ounces, and only graphite may be used to lubricate the axels. A trophy will be awarded to the winner, and the Webelos den will be in charge of the weighing-in ceremony.

Den Two was in charge of games, and they were supervised by Shepard, Ronk and Charles Libby. Ronk announced that any boy in the pack can try out for the Little League baseball teams April 7 at the park diamond on Ames avenue and Johnson road.

The Webelos had the closing candlelight ceremony, representing the four winds and honoring their past den mothers, Mrs. Dorothy Lybarger, Mrs. Vera Pittman and Mrs. Janet Underwood. Mrs. Cross den, Den Five, had charge of refreshments.

PLAN 15TH REUNION
Initial plans for a 15th anniversary reunion of the January 1947 class of Granite City high school were made at a committee meeting Friday evening in the home of William F. Winter, 3310 Wilshire drive.

Raymond Thomas Jones was named general chairman of the event, tentatively set for June 2, and Mrs. Shirley Costley Yates and Mrs. Celeste McGarrhan Puryear will begin contacting the classmates. A second committee session was planned for April 6.

SOCIAL MEETING
The DAV Auxiliary held a social meeting Thursday evening at the hall on 19th street with Mrs. Marie King, commander, in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Dorothy Best, chaplain, led the opening prayer. Games were played and a late lunch was served by Mrs. Irene Niehaus and Mrs. Lois Harp.

The next meeting will be April 4 at the hall.
